of immovable property,
of Virginia, not to exceed in value the

of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)

tion as security for such loan

ary and Treasurer

the Commission has been unable to identify any other country that has taken such a step. The Commission has also been unable to identify any other country that has taken such a step.

[illegible][illegible]

capable to give power to the corporation to acquire or to dispose of any real estate authorized by the said Act of incorporation, and to borrow moneys in excess of the amount provided by the said Act.

Therefore, I do sign and seal with the seal of the said State of Nevada, this 14th day of March, 1905, as follows:

Section 2 of the said Act is hereby amended by striking out the words "not more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000)" in the fourth and eleventh lines the said act and inserting herefor the following: "over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)."

Section 3 of the said Act is hereby amended by striking out the words and figures "thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)" in the second and third lines thereof and substituting therefor the words and figures "as between thousand dollars ($1,000)".

I do say that the foregoing amendments are in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, and I do witness the hand of the said Governor of Nevada, this 14th day of March, 1905.

That the corporation shall not have power to have more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the fourth and eleventh lines the said act and inserting herefor the following: "over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000)." in the second and third lines thereof and substituting therefor the words and figures "as between thousand dollars ($1,000)".

4. This Act shall come into force on the day it is enacted.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB OF WINNIPEG

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

NAME

Name Sec. 1 The Association shall be known as "The Commercial Club of Winnipeg"

ARTICLE II

Politics and Religious Questions Excluded.

Sec. 1 Discussions on political or religious questions of any description shall not be permitted in the Club

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

Admission to Membership.

Sec. 1 Admission to membership in the Club shall be by ballot. Each candidate for admission shall be proposed by a member and seconded by another member by a written proposal addressed to the Honorary Secretary who shall, upon payment of the entrance fee, post the name of such canddate with the names of the proposer and seconder in the place of the Club designated for that purpose for a period of at least seven days prior to the date of election. Notice of election shall be mailed to each resident member at least seven days previous to the day of the election.

Sec. 2. An election for membership shall be held on the first Monday in each month, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 9 o'clock p.m. In the event of one vote in every five cast being adverse to a candidate he shall be deemed not elected and he shall not be eligible for election for a period of twelve months following the date of election. Should a candidate receive less than one third of all the votes cast at an election, or should less than twenty votes be cast in his favor (unless one in every five votes cast in respect of such candidate has been adverse) no election shall be deemed to have been had in regard to such candidate and his name shall be again balloted for on the next election date.

Sec. 3. The entrance fee to the Club shall be $100.00 for resident membership, and $25.00 for non resident membership and shall be handed to the Honorary Secretary at the time of proposal, and in case the candidate be not elected it shall be returned.

Honorary Members

Sec. 2. The Board may once in each year elect one honorary member of the Club and such election shall confer upon such member the privileges of the Club. The election shall be by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors. The person so chosen shall be exempt from initiation fees and annual subscriptions, but he shall be without voice or vote in the affairs of the Club. Provided, however, that the year of his election he shall be a member of the Club he shall not be entitled to a refund of any initiation fees or annual subscriptions theretofore paid.

Annual Subscription

Sec. 3. The annual subscription shall be as follows:—

For resident members, $10.00 per annum, payable quarterly in advance on the first days of January, April, July and October in each year.

For non-resident members, $15.00 per annum, payable in advance on the first day of January in each year.

Sec. 4. The subscription fee of new resident members initiated for or after the first day of January in any year shall be $3.50 per month until the expiration of the first current quarter, and thereafter $10.00 per quarter, payable as provided by the next preceding section.

Sec 7 If any member fail to pay his subscription, or any installment thereof within thirty days after the due date thereof if he be resident in Manitoba or within sixty days if he be resident elsewhere, the Honorary Secretary shall thereupon cease the name of the member so in default to be posted for a further period of sixty days and that at the expiration of the last mentioned period he, as still in default, he shall cease to be a member of the Club residence and on such payment shall become a resident member and failing such payment shall be considered as having withdrawn from the Club.

A resident member who shall change his domicile to a place over ten miles from Winnipeg may with the consent of the Directors become a non resident member and thereafter shall pay the subscription fee of a non resident member but shall not be entitled to a refund of any fee theretofore paid.

clubs

Sec. 11. Any member of a Club which is in affiliation with The Commercial Club of Winnipeg and whose usual place of residence is outside of the City of Winnipeg shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club as an introduced guest but shall first be required to produce his credentials.

Introduced

Sec. 12. A member shall have the right to introduce a guest who resides elsewhere than within a radius of ten miles from the City of Winnipeg. The name of such proposed guest shall first be submitted to the House Committee with the written recommendation of one member and on approval by the House Committee the person so introduced shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding ten days. The period during which such person shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club may be extended from time to time for a period not exceeding three months, for payment of $5.00 per month. This power may be exercised by the Directors at any time within six months from the date of the introduction of such guest. The Board of Directors shall have power to make regulations concerning introduced guests, provided always that the privileges of introduced guests shall be personal only. ^{to introduce introduced only} But members introducing friends shall be responsible for an introduction the after may occur, and that the same person shall not again be introduced by any member of the Club until a period of six months has elapsed since his last introduction.

Sec. 18 Any member may invite a guest ^{Friends may be invited} or give to the Club under such regulations as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe, but the Board shall have power at any time to suspend this privilege for a period not exceeding ten days.

Sec. 19 Any member, whose subscription and dues are paid shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Club upon notifying the Board in writing to that effect, but the member so withdrawing may be re-admitted to the Club upon application made within two years after such withdrawal, without entrance fee but must be balloted for as in the case of an applicant for membership. ^{Withdrawal}

Expulsion

Sec 15 If any member be guilty of conduct which in the opinion of the Board, or of any ten members of the Club certifying such their opinion in writing to that effect is detrimental to the character or interests of the Club, or if any member wilfully infringe the constitution or any of the by-laws or regulations of the Club, the Board of Directors shall, by notice specifying the nature of the offence charged, cause a meeting of the Board to be specially called for the purpose of considering the same and shall request such member to appear before them at such meeting giving him reasonable notice of the nature of the offence charged against him and of the time and place at which he is requested to appear and if he thereupon neglect to appear pursuant to such request and notice or if having so appeared he fail to satisfy the Board the Board may by a vote of at least six of its members, suspend such member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding two months the time of the suspension to begin to run from date of the decision of the Board or the Board may call a special meeting of the Club to consider the matter, and such meeting may by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present thereat to be taken by ballot suspend or expel such member from the Club

Sec 10 Any member who shall resign ^{Resignation} or be expelled from the Club shall cease to be a member thereof and shall forfeit all his rights as a member. A member who shall be expelled shall be ineligible for admission or re-election, and shall not be admitted to the Club premises.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Sec 1 The Club shall be managed by ^{Board of} a Board of eight Directors elected from among the members. Four Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting. Such elections shall be by ballot. Directors shall be elected to serve for a period of two years each, such period dating from the date of the Annual meeting at which they were elected and until their respective successors are elected.

The Board shall have full power to make ^{Changes of} from time to time such rules and regulations for the management of the Club as are not inconsistent with the charter and these by-laws and it shall be the duty of the Board to enforce observance of the by-laws, rules and regulations of the Club.

Sec 2 The officers of the Club shall ^{Officers} consist of a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, an Honorary Secretary, and Treasurer. The two latter offices may be held by the same person. These officers shall be chosen annually, on the Board of Directors from amongst their own number at the first regular meeting of the Board following the annual meeting of the Club, and shall hold office for one year or until their respective successors are appointed. The Board shall have full power, if necessary, to appoint a person who may or may not be a member to act as assistant to the Honorary Secretary at such remuneration as they deem proper.

He will enter once a day in his book the name of every member coming into the Club House, see that new members are not admitted unless brought in by a member, and strangers, who, see a member who is in the House, he will show them into the strangers' room, and immediately send notice to the member so required, for this will respectfully call attention to any departure from the rules, reporting to the Secretary persistent disregard of them.

The Club will be open at 11 a.m. and on weekdays Saturdays and Sundays at nine o'clock and other days at 12 a.m. Standard time will be kept.

On week days breakfast will be served from 7.30 a.m. till 10 a.m. lunch from 12 a.m. till 2.30 p.m. dinner from 6 p.m. till 8 p.m. Hot suppers may be obtained by giving notice to the steward not later than 7.30 p.m.

On Sundays breakfast will be served from 8 a.m. till 12.30 p.m. cold luncheon till 4 p.m. and dinner from 2.30 p.m. till 7 p.m.

During the above hours the Club will be open to all members in good standing, and to introduced members for the rates covered by their introductions.

Introductions of strangers

Members have the privilege of bringing non-members into the strangers' room during Club hours, excepting from the hours of 7 o'clock on all Saturday nights until 9 o'clock on Monday morning when the Club premises are not available to citizens or those residing within ten miles of the city limits, unless they have previously dined with a member.

Members may not take non-members into any other room unless they have previously lunched or dined in the Club with them, and when non-members have so lunched or dined they may be admitted into the billiard smoking and card rooms, but not otherwise.

Members bringing non-members to dine with them will enter the names of their guests in the book provided for that purpose.

No entertainment involving the upsetting of the ordinary routine of the Club shall be given without the consent of the House Committee.

No pamphlet, advertisement or notice of any kind will be laid on the tables or put up in the Club by a member, but any pamphlet, etc. which it may be wished to make known to the Club shall be sent to the Secretary to be laid before the committee for approval.

No conversation will be allowed in the reading and writing rooms.

No member except on special duty will be allowed into the kitchen, buffet, dining-room, or any of the servants' rooms.

No member shall remove from the Club any newspaper, pamphlet, book, map or any other article.

No servant of the Club (the messenger excepted) shall be sent out of the house by any member upon an errand.

No provisions cooked in the Club, or wine, or other liquors, shall be sent out of the house.

No smoking shall be permitted in the Club except in the rooms set apart for that purpose.

Dogs will not be admitted into the Club. The hall porter will turn out any that may intrude and members are requested to aid in the strict enforcement of this rule.

Members must pay their dues for expenses they use in the Club before the 1st of the month following that in which they have been incurred. Otherwise they shall be posted by the Secretary.

No money game of cards shall be played for money nor shall dice be used in the Club except at back-gammon. No higher stake than ten cent points shall be played for nor shall any bet exceed one dollar.

All cue sticks and billiard balls used upon the Club premises shall be kept by the Secretary and furnished by him to those desiring to use them or any of them in the Club and no other cards, dice or billiard balls, excepting those furnished by the Secretary, shall, under any circumstances whatsoever, be used in the Club.

Playing at cards, dice or billiards shall not be permitted on Sundays.

Complaints are to be made in the book provided for that purpose or under cover addressed to the Secretary.
